PRO INDUSTRIAL™ DTM ACRYLIC COATING

An outstanding applied appearance, in just the right sheen for the job, is now available without sacrificing performance. Pro Industrial DTM Acrylic Coating delivers a high-performance finish and long-term durability in your choice of colors.

Engineered for light to moderate industrial use on both interior and exterior surfaces, this coating may be applied directly to properly prepared metals, wood, drywall, and masonry substrates. Pro Industrial DTM Acrylic Coating is also ideal for protecting equipment, machinery piping, and structural steel. With a fast-drying finish, flash rust resistance and corrosion protection are more efficient than ever.

The availability of Pro Industrial DTM Acrylic Coating in a broad range of colors ensures that regardless of the project or end use, finish aesthetics are easy to achieve. When a commercial, institutional, or light industrial environment requires lasting durability and an attractive finish, rely on Pro Industrial DTM Acrylic Coating.
